1Purpose

1. Trainings at LUMS are instructional programs and experiences designed to help employees become more efficient professional workers, and to equip them with the knowledge and skills that improve their career advancement opportunities and to address performance/ behavioral gaps.

2 Eligibility

2. All administrative employees are eligible to attend trainings.

3 Policy

- 3. HRD will organize trainings on need basis.
 - a. Primary source of needs analysis will be Annual Appraisals. HoD can also identify technical trainings for its staff and will inform HR during the review cycle for proper allocation of budget.
- 4. Time away from work for attending approved training program will be considered work time.
- 5. Employee will be informed once registered for a training.
- 6. It is mandatory for employees to attend the training session once registered. In-case of withdrawal from nomination, employee has to inform HRD one week prior to the training date after registration/confirmation. If an employee fails to inform HRD on time, employee will not be enrolled for any trainings by HRD within same fiscal year and training expense penalty may also be imposed on the employee.
- 7. HRD can approve/disapprove any training recommendation based on training need, relevance and budgets.
- 8. For trainings conducted in external venues, employee needs to provide copy of the training certificate for HR Records along with training content/ brochure/ outline provided by the trainer.
- 9. REDC Trainings are provided to LUMS employees at 50% discount.
 - a. For REDC Training, employee will be informed after HoD's consent.
 - b. Employee shall fill in training form and submit it to HRD.
 - c. HRD will carry out the enrollment formalities.
- 10. Post Training evaluation will be conducted after 3 months of training and it will be HoD's responsibility to submit the form to HRD within 15 days.

4 Implementation:

a. This policy is effective from April 15, 2015.
